G'day everyone,

I run one of Australia's business strategy outfits...delivering profitable growth solutions for ambitious organisations in the Pacrim. We're at www.strategicmarketing.com.au

Based at Narellan in Sydney, I'm having great fun enjoying my teenage kids spreading their wings. Send me an email if you're close by

John Jolley

Joined Expandite-Rawlplug after leaving Penno as an Industrial Chemist making glues, goos & sticky stuff. There 4 years & ended up Works Chemist. Left there rather unceremoniously as 600l of silicone sealant had gone solid in a mixer while I was up the local club at lunch time playing snooker with the boys. The boys were the Works Manager, Chief Chemist & another colleague (so I was in fine company) who thought that as I was the least senior that it would be a good idea if I left the business. In the end they did me a favour as at that time much asbestos was used in the manufacture of many of their products.

I had a year landscaping & mowing lawns (probably my fittest year ever) & then joined Unilever (Rexona, Streets, Rosella, Flora etc) as a Sales assistant for Rexona in Head Office at North Rocks. One of my jobs was to update the Sales data for the Sales Director & I used to join dots on graph paper for him(a long way from Powerpoint back then!) After a year transferred to the NSW sales team as a rep where I met Annette (who was my boss on the pharmacy side of the business). No one knew we were an item (as it was not the done thing back then) until we turned up to a work function as a couple & surprised all our colleagues. Soon after I was transferred to the Flora division in beautiful down town Marrickville for a year, married Annette & then off to Adelaide for 9 years as Sales Manager. Had a great 9 years amongst the grapevines in McLaren Vale, produced a son William who is now 17. Finally relented to pressure to transfer to Melbourne as Sales Mgr & looked after the Coles National account. (Nearly there, if you're bored skip to the end!). After about 8 years transferred to Streets Ice Cream (which made me very popular with all the kids!) 4 Years there , another restructure & a cheque not to come back 4 days prior to Sept 11. Took the family to Europe for 2 months & on return set up a plant propagation business that I am currently running.

See you at the Penno pub . Hope the Colonel's plaque is still in the corner near the bar. Looking forward to sharing the odd cheeky schooner of "Black" with anyone who cares to (if I can manage schooners after 25 years on "pots!")

JJ

Diane West (nee Kemsley)

Message from Diane to Bronwyn Edwards:

Hi this is Diane West (nee Kemsley). It was great to hear about the 1973 reunion. Currently I am living in Washington DC for 12 months as my husband Rod is on a military posting here. If we are back in Australia by then I would love to come but it is unlikely. My email is dwest1@cox.net

I quick update. I am a Physiotherapist, Ergonomist and an Occupational Health and Safety Consultant. Currently I am living in Washington DC, not working but enjoying life. I have just got back from 10 wonderful days skiing in Whistler Canada. I married my husband Rod 20 years ago this March and have moved every 1-2 years since. He is an Army Officer so we have lived all around Australia and now the USA. My daughter is nearly 16 and going to boarding school at Pymble Ladies College. My son is 12 and here with us in American Middle School.

I look forward to keeping in touch via your great website.

Bye from Diane West (nee Kemsley)
